

Leave XM & Siruis alone, The FCC screwed up local radio when they allowed single ownership of radio stations creating the mess today. The radio stations do not need to be protected by FCC
Let the competition begin and lets see how radio can make it's selfs more competitive